

I wish to register my objection and concern regarding Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

I agree with the assessment of Reed Hunt:

How can it be part of a broadcaster's public interest obligation to aspire to alter the perceptions of the audience about a presidential candidate by showing biased content that in no way reflects either breaking news or even-handed treatment of the issues? why should a broadcaster keep its licenses if it behaves in this manner?

thank you
